

THE
PUBLIC SECTOR
PROCUREMENT
SUMMIT

Official Supporter

Crown
Commercial
Service

The Public Sector Procurement Summit

10th November 2015, London

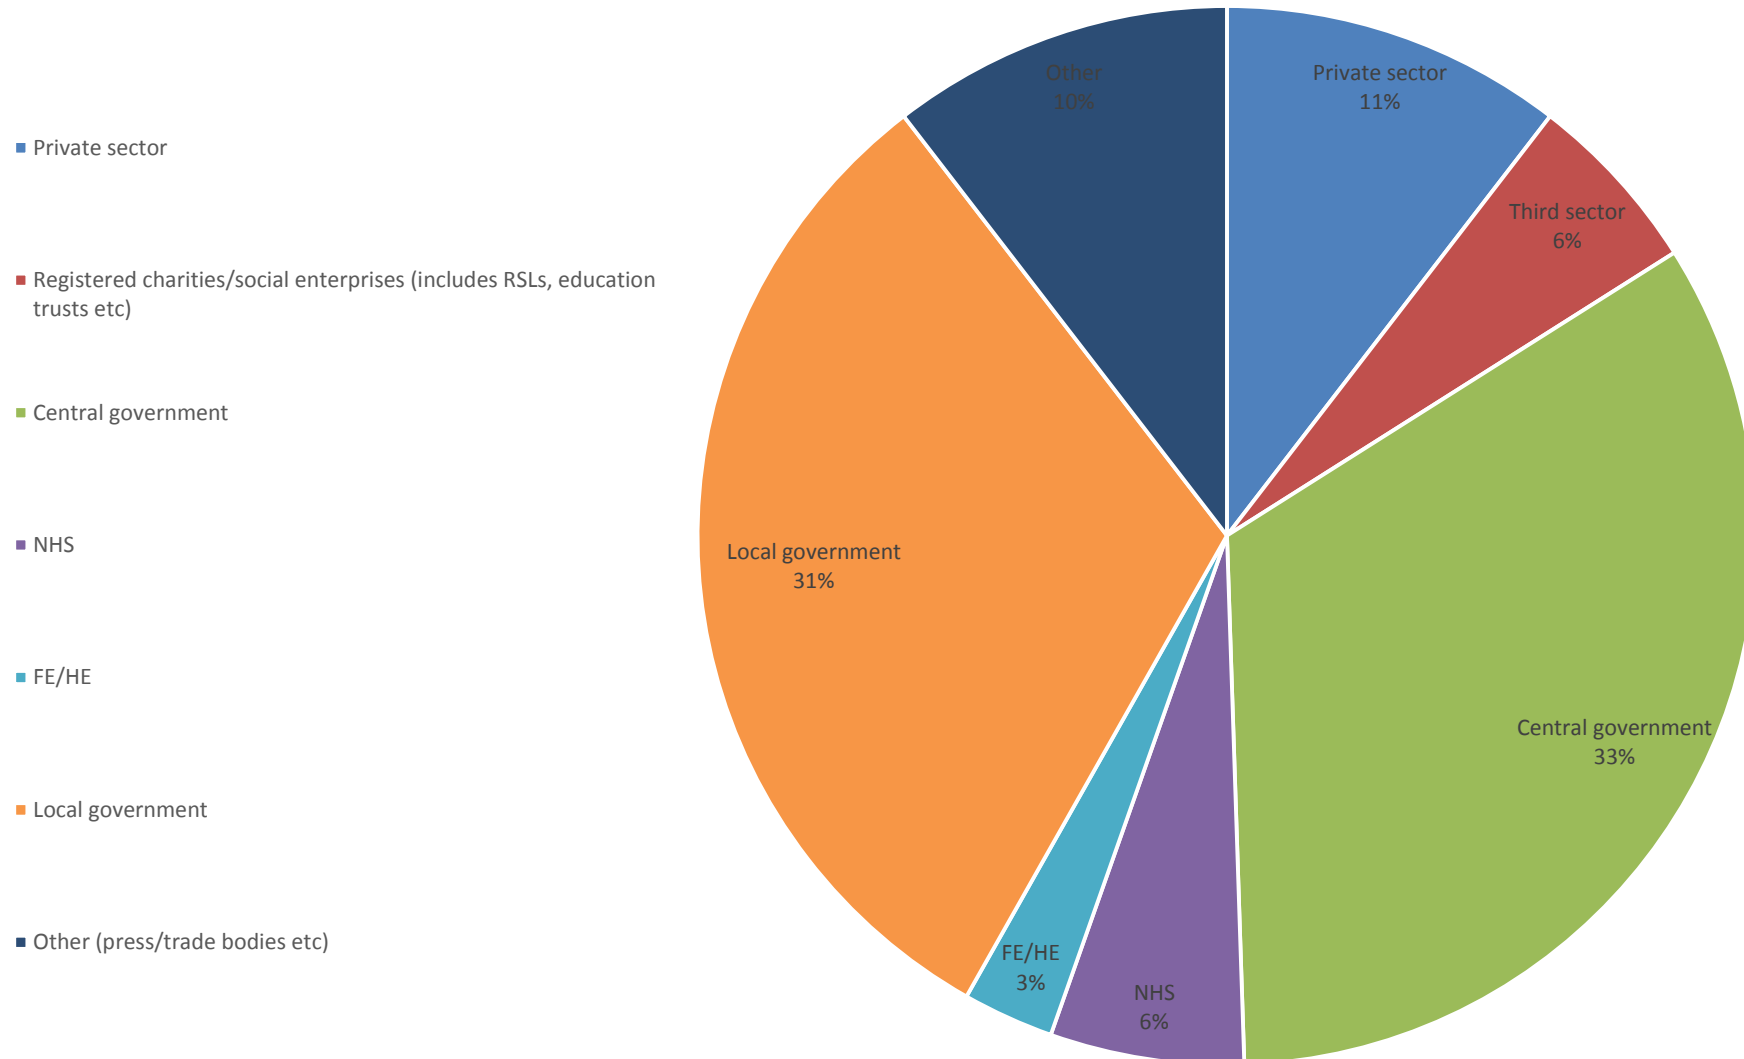

www.dods.co.uk

- An annual event for procurement, commercial and legal professionals
- Officially supported by the Crown Commercial Service
- Over 300 people registered in 2014
- 86% of polled, high-level delegates held/influenced budget of £10m+
- Provides platform for commercial partners such as Atos, HP, Ariba and Capita

Audience composition

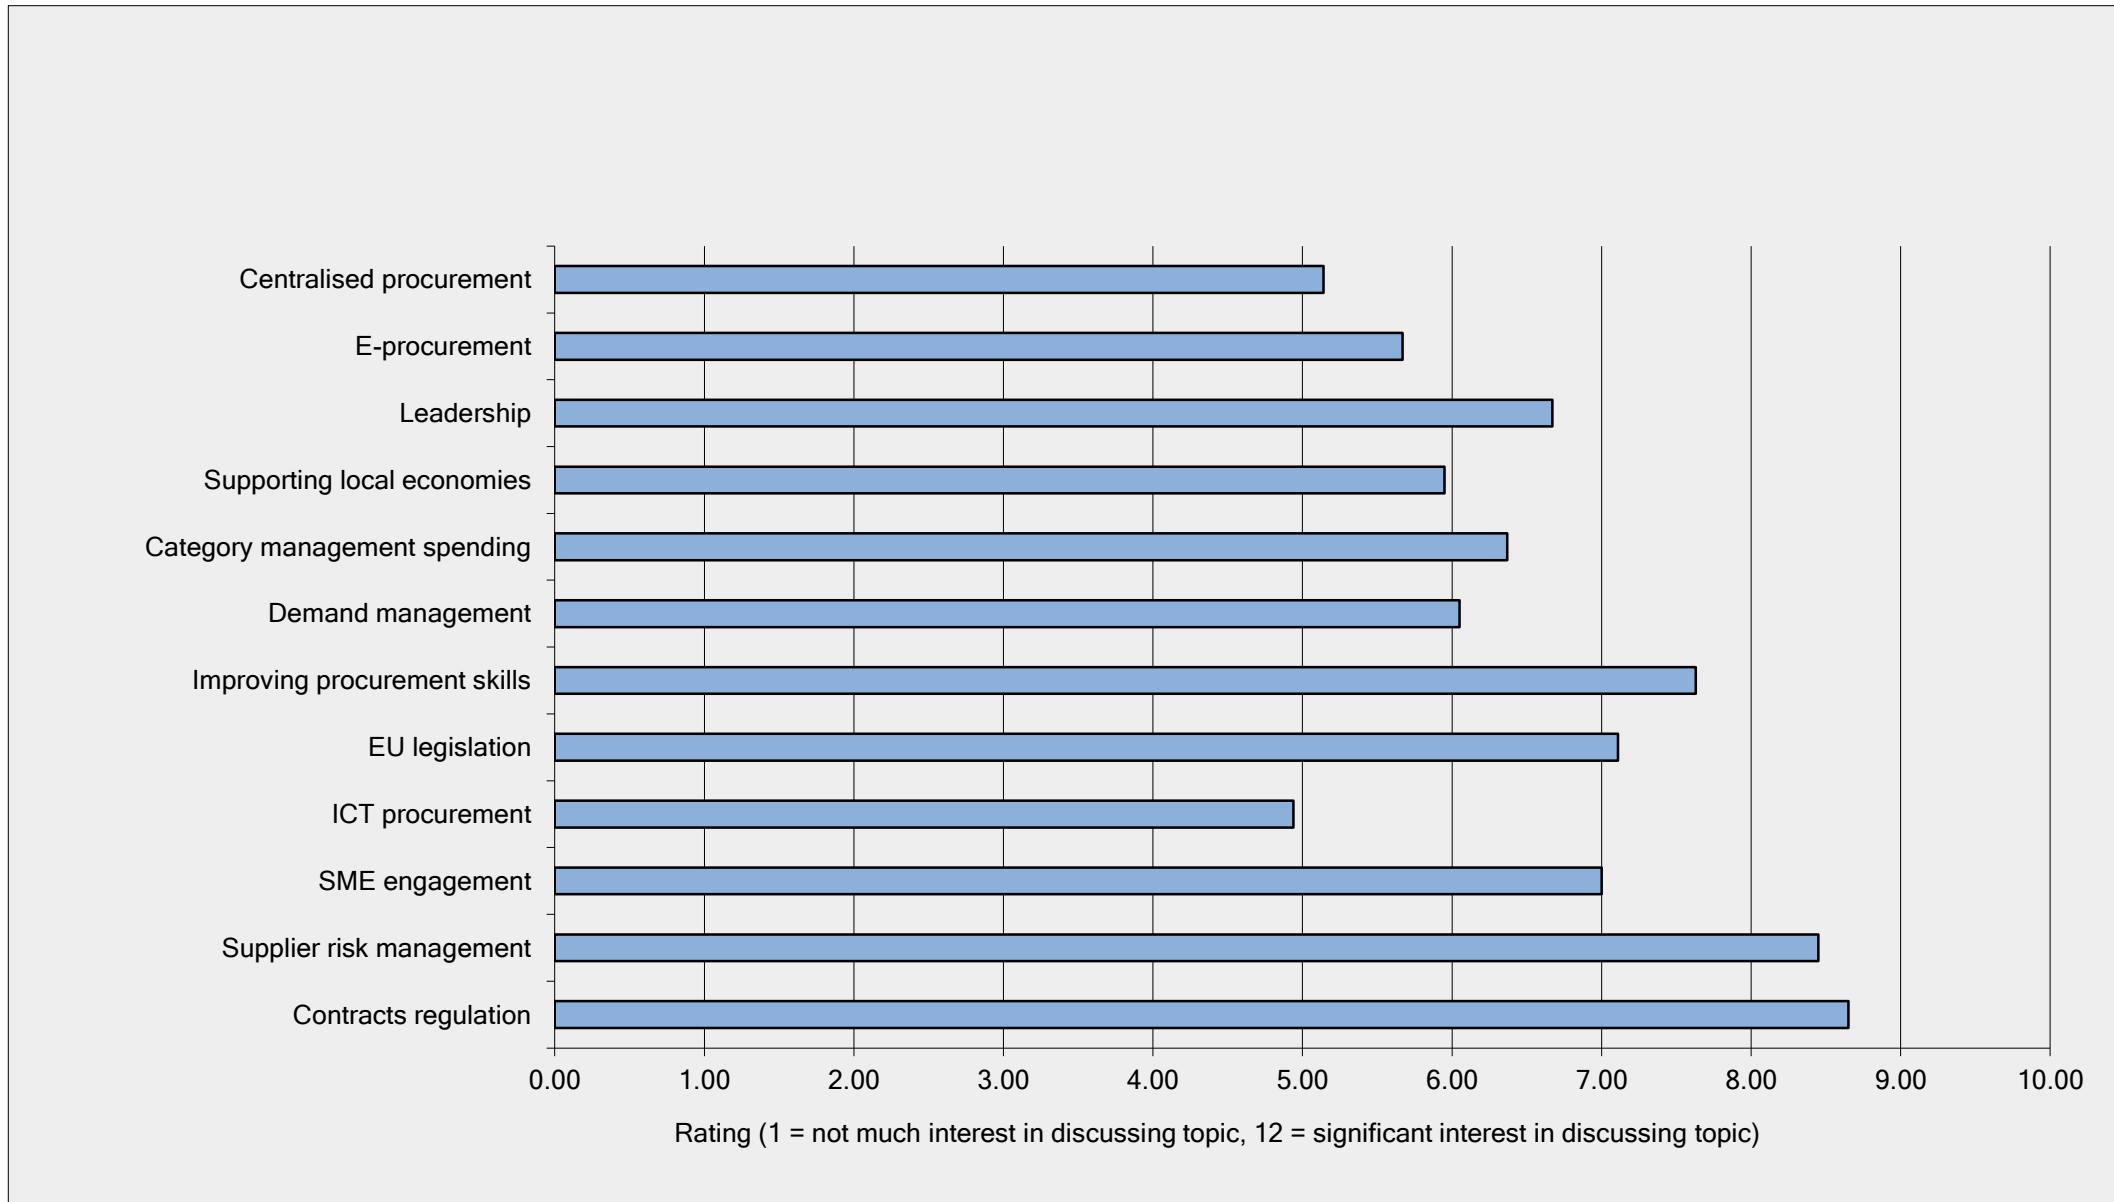

- Significant representation from central and local government

Previous attendees

Position	Organisation
Head of Commercial	Rural Payments Agency
Head of Commercial Services	London Borough of Merton Council
Head of ICT Procurement	Surrey County Council
Head of Procurement	Bank of England
Head of Procurement	Leicester City Council
Head of Procurement	NEL Commissioning Support Unit
Head of Procurement	Nottinghamshire County Council
Head of Procurement	Staffordshire and Stoke on Trent Partnership NHS Trust
Head of Procurement & Commercial	Department for Culture, Media & Sport
Head of Procurement & Contract Management	Bucks New University
Head of SME Policy	CCS
Chief Procurement Officer	Southwest One

What do public sector procurement professionals want to know?

Speakers

- Joaquim Nunes de Almeida, Director of Public Procurement, Directorate for Internal Market and Services, European Commission
 - Stephen Allott, Crown Representative for SMEs, Cabinet Office
 - Linda O'Halloran, Head of Products, Local Digital Programme, DCLG
 - Jim Carter, Commercial Director, Network Rail
 - Ainslie McLaughlin, Director, Procurement & Commercial, The Scottish Government
 - Pat Mills, Commercial Director, Department of Health
-

- How to respond to the SBEE Act
 - The adjustments required to successfully implement Public Contracts Regulations
 - Adoption of e-procurement and e-invoicing services
 - How to work and measure engagement with SMEs
 - Steps needed to improve supplier risk management in the public sector
 - Making real savings from pooled procurement of common goods and services
 - What's needed to successfully redesign public services
 - Progress in developing a recognised, valued commercial profession
 - The effect of future EU public procurement plans on the UK
-

For more information, please contact:

John Nassoori

john.nassoori@dods.co.uk

020 7593 5739